Kung-shang Jih-pao.KMT GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES CONTINUE IN VARIOUS LOCALITIES

DISCUSSES KMT GUERRILLA STRENGTH -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 26 Aug 50

Taihoku, 26 August - The Hong Kong Ta Kung Pao, dated 21 August 1950, reported that of the 1,400,000 KMT guerrillas which had been active in China, one million have already been annihilated [Ta Kung Pao quoted correctly]. Contrary to this report, Mao Tse-tung stated earlier in 1950 that only 600,000 KMT guerrillas existed. Despite these conflicting reports, it is reliably reported that the 1,200,000 KMT guerrillas are now being reinforced to 1,800,000 and 60 percent of these men are armed, which give them sufficient strength to cause Communist forces a great deal of difficulty.

100,000 ACTIVE IN WEST HUNAN -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 5 Aug 50

Taihoku, 4 August -- Over 100,000 KMT guerrillas led by Yin Li-yen (1) [numbers refer to appended characters] recently attacked the Chinese Communist forces defending the An-chiang area. These guerrillas have their headquarters in Hsueh-p'ing Shan in western Hunan.

ATTACK LUNG-MEN IN KWANGTUNG -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 24 Aug 50

Hui-chou, 23 August -- On 22 August 1950, a brigade of the KMT Kwangtung Anti-Communist Self-Defense National Salvation Army which has its headquarters at Lo-fou Shang, in Kwangtung, attacked Lung-men, forcing the Communist officials within the city to evacuate the area. This harassing activity has caused great anxiety to Wu Hsing (2) commander of the Hui-chou unit of the Forty-first Army, Fifteenth Army Group, Fourth Field Army.

TUNG CHIANG GUERRILLAS ACTIVE -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 2 Aug 50

A visitor from Tzu-chin, Kwangtung, has reported that the strength of KMT guerrilla units in the Tung Chiang area of Kwangtung is being enhanced by many former Communist troops who are joining forces with them. After the outbreak of the Korean conflict, the rumor that Taiwan Nationalist forces were preparing to attack the mainland caused many guerrillas in the Tzu-chin and Wu-hua area to rise up actively against Communist forces. On 27 July 1950, 700 Chinese Communist troops of the Tzu-chin and Wu-hua public security bureaus surrounded Po-kung-ling in An-liu, Kwangtung, in an attempt to wipe out the KMT guerrillas in this area. However, that attack failed and resulted in death and injury to 150 Communist troops.

PEI CHIANG GUERRILLAS ATTACK CCF SUPPLY BOATS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 2 Aug 50

While traveling through Yang-shang Hsien, on 25 July 1950, six Chinese Communist provision boats from Lien-hsien were attacked by 500 KMT guerrillas of the Pei Chiang detachment commanded by Liang Hua-ch'ing (3). The conflict lasted for approximately 8 hours during which over 30 Communist troops were killed and five captured. Among the supplies and equipment confiscated by the guerrillas were 40 rifles, one light machine gun, two portable machine guns, 500 piculs of grain, etc. The grain was immediately distributed among the local citizens.

COMMUNIST TROOPS TAKEN PRISONERS -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 16 Jul 50

On 12 July 1950, KMT guerrillas intercepted a Canton -- Tseng-ch'eng highway bus, disarmed the Communist soldiers and cadres who were aboard, and made them prisoners. The bus and its passengers were then permitted to continue their journey unharmed.

ANTI-COMMUNIST BULLETINS POSTED IN HUNAN -- Hong Kong Kung-shang Jih-pao, 22 Aug 50

A visitor from Hunan has reported that Hunan KMT guerrillas, known as the Anti-Communist National Salvation Army, have been putting up anti-Communist posters in various public places informing the people of the facts about the Korean conflict and the MacArthur visit to Taiwan. As a result of being more enlightened on current events, the masses are forming anti-Communist feelings.
